RECTOR'S RAMBLINGS

Chess

I am a chess nerd. I like other board games and table top games but I think that chess is the most interesting. Chess appears to have come from India, and spread east as well as west - China has the variant Xiangqi and Japan has Shogi. Our version apparently began in fifteenth century Spain, gradually rising in popularity. The shape of chess pieces we know today developed in about 1850, and the first official world champion was Wilhelm Steinitz in 1886.

Chess is a game of 'perfect information'. Both players know all there is to know about the game at any point and there is no chance involved - no shuffle of the cards nor roll of the dice. Winning or losing is down simply to the skill and knowledge of the players.

This has led to vast forests of 'opening theory' about the first moves that each side plays. These initial sequences all have names, which range from the plain: bishop's opening, English opening - to the wild: the fried liver attack, the Sicilian dragon and even the Frankenstein-Dracula variation! All of these are about ways to get the upper hand early - to control more space, or win early material.

Then there are tactics - pins, forks, skewers, overloading, discovered attacks, windmills... The most spectacular tactic is a sacrifice. Here, the queen or rook might be given up in order to force checkmate. It's much the coolest way to win! And this is the place where chess and the Christian faith come closest to meeting: a queen sacrifice is a great metaphor for Jesus' victory on the cross. It looks like defeat - loss of the most valuable piece - and yet in this case it guaranteed victory! It is a useful image, but not the whole picture.

For many of us September is a new term at school, college or university. A fresh start. Continuing the chess theme, you have all the pieces laid out ready to start the game again. I hope and pray that the school year is good for you and yours - that the year is a good game, that you have fun and enjoy lots of laughter and a few triumphs. In the end, neither life nor chess are so much about winning as having fun with friends.

God bless you, Tim.

“THIS IS MY BODY....” REALLY PRESENT?

“This is my body....This is my blood.....” said Jesus at the Last Supper and repeated frequently all over the world by Christian priests and ministers in the Eucharist. Parallel to these words of Jesus are his words in the sixth chapter of John: “Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.” And again, “....whoever eats me will live because of me.” Clearly these words were not meant literally in terms of everyday usage. They were mind-blowing and shocking then and still are. However, they are not statements of chemistry and do not imply chemical change. What do they mean then? As we all know, they have been passionately argued about down the centuries.

For some, focusing on Jesus’ command, “Do this in remembrance of me”, they are simply an invitation to remember Jesus’ death – a kind of memorial service; what I once heard a principal of a theological college rather mischievously describe as a “funeral tea”. More seriously, this approach is often accompanied in the Free Churches by some such words as (when taking the bread) “May the life which was in Jesus be in us also” and (when drinking the wine) “May the spirit in which he died be our spirit.” However, this kind of ‘remembering’ scarcely does justice to the Greek of the Gospel. “Whoever eats me” uses a word meaning “munch” – very physical! Moreover, for many (probably most) Christians, this has not been sufficient. Based on what they believe they experience, they want to affirm what is called ‘the real presence’ of Christ in the bread and wine: that some real change has taken place, though the appearances of bread and wine remain the same. They would endorse words attributed to Queen Elizabeth I,

*“Christ was the Word and spake it,
He took the bread and brake it,
And what his word doth make it,
That I believe and take it.”*

Martin Luther held that the consecrated bread and wine remained bread and wine but also and alongside as it were, became the body and blood of Jesus Christ as well. Another way to understand what has come to be known as the Real Presence is to say that although chemically the bread and wine remain unchanged, the meaning has changed. The significance of the bread and wine is no longer simply that of bread and wine, but the body and blood i.e. the very life of Jesus Christ and it is taken into us in the same way that any food and drink is taken into us. (I don't say "into our souls" or "into our bodies" because we are not bodies with a soul inside. We are single entities: body-souls: psychosomatic beings.) Moreover, we are what we eat! So here we become one with Jesus Christ and, since we are partaking of him together, we are one with one another in him! The weakness of this approach is, I think, that it doesn't go far enough. We can never be sure exactly what Jesus meant by these much-discussed words when he used them at the supper with his friends on the night in which he was betrayed. But we can be sure that when - through the scriptures - he invites us to partake of his body and blood, it is his risen, glorified body and blood that we partake of. We are what we eat, so that to eat the risen Lord and drink the blood of the risen Lord is to partake of his risen-ness and to become part of the New Creation, which his death and resurrection inaugurated.

There are many styles of being a Christian and we are not all the same. Moreover, we believe as we can. We each have our pilgrimage to make. The thing is not to get stuck at some particular point and think we have reached perfection either in our Christian life or what we believe here and now. We must be open to changing our mind in the light of more knowledge or a deeper experience. If we aren't, we may be shutting ourselves off from the Holy Spirit. The fault of the Pharisees, said Jesus, wasn't that they were blind. It was that they said, "We see!"

As we come to the Eucharist in faith, trusting in Jesus' words, we can be sure that he will be present in the sacrament. This is so - irrespective of how we happen to feel at the time. Our heart might be strangely warmed or we might feel spiritually numb, God seeming a long way away: the whole thing extremely unlikely! This is the point of the sacraments. All we need is a mustard-seed faith and - as far as the Eucharist is concerned - the very fact that we are there at all would suggest that we have that. At the end of the day, the presence of Christ in the Sacrament is not a puzzle to be solved, but a mystery to be contemplated in wonder, love and praise.

DUNWICH

DUNWICH HEATH

Well, the holidays are over, and what a holidays it was... The scorching weather meant it was a little harder to find the vivid purple of the heather, but having to work for your reward makes it all the sweeter, supposedly!

We welcomed plenty of people to our beautiful patch, and it's been brilliant to hear all the feedback from visitors having a great time doing the trails, taking part in activities, and spending family time together.

September is when most of our summer migrant species, such as sand martins, stone curlews and nightjars, start to think about heading down south again, and we'll often see those already underway from further north winging their way past. As if to mirror the change in wildlife, at the end of the month our ranger will be thinking about a change by starting scrapes on the heath, clearing away old and dead vegetation to make way for new and vibrant growth. Until then it's surveys and bracken clearing, a never ending but necessary job!

Now the summer is over, at least for the breeding birds, dogs can be off the lead again, though please still keep them under close supervision. We don't want them running off into the undergrowth and disturbing the heathland birds. Looking further ahead, we'll start to see our winter migrant species arriving once the weather cools, so keep an eye out for hen harriers, crossbills and more, and keep an ear out for red deer bellowing as the rut gets underway in October...

GENTS' GROUP

The summer break is close to being over and it is therefore time to restart the regular Gents' meetings.

The meetings take place in the Methodist Chapel Hall in Peasehall, on the first and third Thursday of each month starting at 2.30pm and ending at around 4pm. The first meeting is scheduled for 15th September.

The group is an informal gathering and is open to all men from across the area. Tea and cake is provided and it is suggested that a voluntary contribution of £2.50 be made by those attending, to help pay for the hall and heating.

Most meetings give those attending an opportunity to discuss current affairs - local, national and international, and on occasion speakers on various subjects are invited to come along.

This is a friendly and diverse meeting and open to anyone to attend, so why not give it a try? If you need further information please contact Chris Norrington on 01728 660280.

SIBTON

THE PAGEANT AT THE SIBTON ABBEY RUINS

The Friends of St Peter's, Sibton would like to thank everyone who came and all those involved in holding the pageant to celebrate their 25th anniversary. Especially we would like to thank the Levett-Scrivener family for allowing us to hold the pageant in the grounds of the Sibton Abbey Ruins, and Alex and Mungo for the tremendous amount of work that went into the preparation of the site so that it would be safe for visitors.

There have been many comments about how much people enjoyed the day and huge credit goes to those who appeared on stage, the children in Tudor dress, and Juliet and Marti Levett-Scrivener who judged and awarded the prizes; also the performers Circle 67 under the direction of Peter Hamilton Dyer with their production of the Suffolk medieval mystery play The Conversion of St Paul. Whoever can forget his palfrey?! Then there was the medieval music played by Amyas Duo, and the folk music played by Jeremy Thickitt and his friends, not to mention the Rumburgh Morris and the Measly Middle Ages, from Fun Facts from Horrible Histories, read by Peter Hamilton Dyer. The weather did us just right, and finally of course there were the Abbey Ruins and the tours guided by David Sims and his collaborators.

The pageant raised over £3,000 towards the continuing maintenance of Sibton Church, itself built partly of stonework from the former abbey. Thank you to one and all.

A CHARITY INDIAN MEAL IN AID OF FLOOD RELIEF FOR BANGLADESH

The Friends of Sibton Church and Sibton PCC acted as hosts to Al Tazid Foundation (Charity No. 1164525) for their fundraising Indian lunch held in Sibton Church. Boshor Ali, who runs the charity, has asked for a huge thank you to be conveyed to all who came to the meal in Sibton Church and gave so generously. £1,220 was raised and will be sent immediately to the foundation's volunteers who have already provided information about the effects of the floods on the poorest inhabitants of the villages in the Sylhet district where Al Tazid Foundation operates. The money will be used to provide immediate relief and repair, particularly concentrating on shelter and effective sanitation.

WESTLETON WILDFLOWER FESTIVAL AND CRAFT FAIR

On the last weekend of July, whilst others were looking forward to the Women's Football Final, we welcomed hundreds of visitors to the Church where the Wildflower displays depicting the Queen's 70 years Jubilee, 'Long may she Reign' were absolutely beautiful, stunning and very much appreciated by everyone.

The Craft Fair in the Village Hall was very popular - to the delight of all the stall holders and visitors alike, showing a variety of exciting high class craft products. People enjoyed homemade cakes, served in the foyer of the Village Hall, and buying plants run by the Gardeners' Club.

Clive Ireland added to an interesting wander around the churchyard with his knowledge of the 130 species of moths he captured in his moth traps overnight, enthralling the visitors, along with Joyce Burtenshaw sharing her knowledge of the wildflowers in the churchyard.

A very successful combined effort by our Church, the Village Hall and the community. £2,800 will be divided between the Church and the Village Hall.

In the evening Revd Tim led an Informal Worship Service in the church praising God for the success of such a wonderful weekend.

Thank you everyone.

WESTLETON GARDENERS

Our first autumn meeting is on Tuesday 20th September at 7.30pm in Westleton Village Hall and we have an interesting programme over the next six months.

To kick off, Tony Duffield will be presenting a talk on 'Invasive Plants'. Prior to retirement his speciality was mathematical modelling of ecosystems.

We are a small friendly Gardening Club and do not have an annual membership subscription but a 'pay on the door' system, with the fee at £2.50 each, so all are welcome.

Doors open at 7.15pm and there will be time to chat and refreshments after the talk.

Any queries please contact Marilyn on 01728 649088.

WESTLETON COMMON EVENTS SEPTEMBER 2022

WESTLETON CARPET BOWLS CLUB

Thirty-one years ago the Club was formed to raise funds towards the upkeep of the Village Hall. We sincerely hope 2022 will not be the final year of Westleton Carpet Bowls Club.

Due to illness and the sad passing of valued members of the Club over these past few months, to keep this village amenity viable, we are desperate for new members to come forward and join us.

We will meet in Westleton Village Hall on Monday 5th September at 2pm for a 2.15 start to play.

Why not join us for a convivial afternoon Carpet Bowling? We play for fun and the gentle exercise of bowling and occasionally play a friendly match against local clubs.

Absolute beginners or experienced players are most welcome to join us on the 5th for a 'tester game' in the hope you will join the Club as a weekly bowler.

If you have any questions, please do telephone me, Margaret Branton, on 01728 648422, or our Captain, Phil Cramp on 01728 648106

WESTLETON WI

Our June meeting was a garden party in Gill Moore's lovely garden. An informal afternoon of pretty summer frocks and chatting to old friends. It still feels as if we are playing catch-up because of the times we could not meet. Thank you, Gill!

August brought another treat as our speaker was from Serenity Yoga. Bethany Last put us through our very elementary paces and it was difficult to get back to reality and drag our very relaxed selves home! Just what was needed on a summer's evening.

The successful flower festival has come and gone and though not a strictly WI activity we are, as residents of the village, always very much involved.

So now the next big activity is the September Jumble Sale - so keep this in mind as you have a clear out.

Visitors are always welcome.

CHRISTIANS AGAINST POVERTY: ENERGY-RELATED RELIEF FUND

Whether you need it or not, if you have a domestic electricity connection, from October you will receive a rebate on your electricity bill totalling £400!!

For many of us, this will be viewed as a nice little bonus but for many, it will go just a little way to help to make ends meet in these very challenging times.

The Suffolk Coastal Debt Centre is setting up a relief fund for clients who are really struggling to pay for the essentials in life and for whom the worry of even more demands on their budgets could drive them to breaking point.

If you would like to contribute to this fund and bring some relief to those who need it most, you can do so in a number of ways:

You can set up a standing order to match the monthly rebate (£66 in October 2022 & November 2022 & then £67 from December 2022 - March 2023). Or, if you prefer, you are invited to make a single or regular donation of any amount - this will be welcomed at any time. The account will be administered by St John's Church, Saxmundham and all donations will be used to directly help SCDC clients, managed by our Debt Advisors.

Please make sure that any standing orders or bank transfers are clearly marked "SCDC Relief Fund"

The bank details are: Parochial Church Council of Saxmundham

Sort code: 20 98 07 Acc no: 60694827

We would be grateful if you could please publicise this appeal by all appropriate means.

For more information about the rebate scheme, you can find it on this government web page <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/energy-bills-support-scheme-explainer>

If you have any questions or would like to join our Whatsapp Prayer Group, please email me at dougfletcher@capuk.org for details.
