

Outdoor Living Portuguese style

Despite being a small country Portugal has a diversity of regions and climates. All of these wines are sustainable which means the wineries are helping to curb the effects of climate change and the global wine industry. In the past decade or more the quality wine revolution has got under way. Portugal offers good value and great enjoyment!

WHITE

Vinho Verde Loureiro/Alvarinho, Azevedo 2021 £10.45

Escolha 12% Sustainable & Vegetarian

Loureiro / Alvarinho (same as Albarino)

Azevedo is a modern winery with state-of-the-art facilities making an impressive range of white wines, all marked by a signature of freshness and pure, precise flavours. Grapes are sourced from a prime vineyard in the Vinho Verde region which is just above Oporto where the climate is wet and green. This wine is bright and refreshing with citrus aromas that mingle with nuances of orange blossom balanced by lively acidity and a crisp finish.

A wonderful summer wine and great with 'piri-piri' prawns.

ROSE

Vinho Rosé 'Sossego' Herdade do Peso 2021 £10.80

Alentejano 13% Sustainable & Vegan

Aragonez / Touriga Nacional / Trincadeira

Herdade do Peso is situated in the southerly Alentajo region that benefits from cool Atlantic air funnelled inland from the coast by the gap in the surrounding mountains. The oenologists make expressive, generous wines that reflect the unique sense of place in the spectacular estate. The grapes for the Sossego Rosé are harvested early to retain their natural acidity and freshness, the wine has an attractive pale pink colour bursting with fragrant aromas of red cherries, on the palate it has flavours of wild strawberries, vibrant acidity and a crisp, fresh finish. A sublime aperitif for the picnic!

RED

Dao Tinto, Carvalhais, Grao Vasco 2020 £9.95

Dao 13% Sustainable

Touriga Nacional / Tinta Roriz / Alfrocheiro

The Grao Vasco wines are named after Portuguese Renaissance painter Vasco Fernandes. (1480 - 1543) The wine is vibrant ruby red in colour with aromas of blackberries and cherries combined with balsamic nuances, the palate is silky smooth with round tannins and a refreshing, lingering finish. Great with barbequed meats for your garden party!

Evaristo Tinto 2020 Lisbon 13.5% £9.25 Sustainable

Evaristo has an up-and-coming wine maker Antonio Braga who is a master in the art of blending indigenous Portuguese and international grapes that are sourced across the Lisbon wine region. The wine has a deep, ruby colour with vibrant aromas of blackcurrants, on the palate plush tannins give lovely mellow fruit flavours that carry onto a smooth finish. An easy drinking wine for relaxing during the summer nights.
