

NEW ITALY - Beautiful & Bold

WHITES

Enjoy both of these beautiful wines with white meat, salads or fish

Verdicchio di Matelica, Valbona, Cantine Belisario 2021 £10.25

Marche 12.5% Organic & Vegan

Grechetto di Todi, Di Filippo 2021 £11.95

Umbria 12.5% Organic & Vegan

Di Filippo estate was established in 1971 and was certified organic in 1994. It is situated in Perugia overlooking Assisi. Run by family members that now follow the philosophy of Biodynamic farming, machines are not used and geese run free feeding on the grass that grows between the vines. 100% Grechetto di Todi (also known as Pignoletto that is an ancient variety planted in Emilia-Romagna) the wine is rounded, tangy and fresh complemented by hints of apricot, sage and notes of almonds on the finish.

REDS

Both of these bold wines would be great with red meat, pasta and pizza

Nero d'Avola 'Vitese' Colomba Bianca 2021 £10.40

Sicily 14% Organic & Vegan

Colomba Bianca is the largest Sicilian grower cooperative and the biggest producer of organic wine in Italy. Despite their size they engage in micro-viticulture and micro-wine-making to ensure the ultimate precision, quality and expression of terrior. It is 100% Nero d'Avola which is the most important grape grown in Sicily, the wine is a brilliant deep red with juicy flavours of ripe plums, black cherries interlaced with subtle violet notes and a spicy character on the finish.

Primitivo 'I Muri' Vigneti del Salento 2021 £10.95

Puglia/Italy 13.5% Vegetarian

Vigneti Salento are attracted to the rich, ripe flavours of fruit from Puglia and capture the best characters using minimal intervention of technology but a lot of know-how. This style of Primitivo is soft, smooth with hints of dried fruit, savoury nuances & exotic spice.
