Keeping you informed, keeping your community safe

Police are appealing for help in tracing a Hollesley Bay prisoner who has absconded.

Mark Heanan, aged 30, was reported missing to police this evening, Tuesday 1 August, after he was absent from a roll call at 5pm.

He is serving an indeterminate sentence for wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm.

Heanan is described as white, 6ft tall, of medium build, with brown hair and a tattoo on the left side of his neck. He was last seen wearing a blue polo shirt, khaki shorts and black flip flops. A photograph of Mark Heanan is attached.

He has links to Kent and Surrey. Members of the public are advised not to approach him.

Anyone who believes they may have seen Mark Heanan, or who has any information regarding his whereabouts, is asked to contact Suffolk Police on 101.
